

Calling Landowners

Do you have a project but don't know where to start?

What programs are available?

Do partners have funding available to assist with land management?

Who should you contact if you have questions regarding funding possibilities?

What other land management opportunities are there?

Tune in virtually on June 17, 2022 to hear presentations from South Dakota Game Fish and Parks, South Dakota Department of Agriculture and Natural Resources, South Dakota Family Forests Association, and South Dakota Conservation Districts in relation to woodland landowner project assistance opportunities available throughout the state.

Location: Online/Virtually

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the responsible Agency or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.
