

SOUTH DAKOTA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND NATURAL RESOURCES

Puncturevine

(Tribulus terrestris)

Roots: taproot

Stems: prostrate, branched from the base, mat forming, surfaces pubescent

Leaves: opposite, blades even-pinnately compound, leaflets 6-16 pairs

Flowers: yellow corolla, drying white, 5 petals

Origin: Europe