

Black Hills Farmers Market Outreach Program

Local Foods Purchase Assistance PLUS Program

Participation Questionnaire

Thank you for your interest in the Local Foods Purchase Assistance (LFPA) Plus Program. This program's goal is to procure and deliver locally grown food to South Dakotans in need and provide a market opportunity for South Dakota producers. The funding was made possible through the USDA Department of Agriculture. Please provide the following information communicating your interest to the Black Hills Farmers Market (BHFM) Outreach Program procurement team. This information helps the BHFM procurement team plan their food purchases from South Dakota producers for distribution to communities in need through this program.
