COIL RESTRICTIONS:

Under special conditions, may be irrigated with center pivot. Slopes should be level or nearly level. High levels of organic matter should be maintained. Flotation tires, circular farming, or other unique methods of assuring trafficability may be required.

- RECOMMENDED MANAGEMENT:

Each uninterrupted application should be of at least 2 to 4 inches of water.

Two rotations for each application may be needed to apply this amount of water without runoff or excess ponding.

Gravity, with graded uniform slope is the type of irrigation system recommended for use on this application.

For a center pivot to be used successfully, surface grading of the flat and/or low areas to the adjacent drainageway on the west side or to the drainage ditch on the northeast side should be done.

Without this, you may experience some water ponding, poor soil aeration.

crop drowning, and wheel track rutting.

Dear Sirs:

This letter is in response to your recent inquiry as to why you did not receive an irrigation questionnaire for Water Permit No. 4571-3. Water Permit No. 4571-3 was incorporated into Water Right No. 100-3 upon licensing.

Since the lands authorized by each of the permits were operated as one system, the lands actually being irrigated at the time of inspection were incorporated into one license. No rights were lost with the incorporation, only a permit number.

Enclosed is a copy of Water License No. 4700-3. If you have any further questions, please contact us.
